

Llanddona, Capel Peniel
Cofeb y Rhyfel Mawr 1914 - 1918

Llanddona, Capel Peniel
Great War Memorial 1914 - 1918

The War Memorial was opened in September 1921

Ar Serchog Gof am Ein Hanwyl Frodyr a Cwmpasant yn y Rhyfel Mawr 1914 – 1918.

01 Pte William Davies, Ty'n Mynydd

Private 105292; Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry (Eastern Ontario Regiment); killed in action on 23 March 1917 age 28 at Vimy; buried in Ecoivres Military Cemetery in the Pas de Calais; son of John and Margaret Davies of Ty'n Mynydd Farm, Llanddona; had emigrated to Canada for work

02 Pte Hugh Hughes, Pen 'Rallt

Private 15501, 10th Battalion Royal Welsh Fusiliers; killed in action on 20 July 1916 age 29; buried at Delville Wood, near Mametz; married to Martha and lived in Talybont near Bangor; born at Pen 'Rallt in Llanddona

03 Pte Edward Jones, Tyddyn Waen

Private 54794, 15th Battalion Royal Welsh Fusiliers; died of wounds 15 June 1917 age 20; buried in Bard Cottage Cemetery, Belgium. Also commemorated on Llangoed War Memorial

04 Pte Edward Jones, Pentre'r Llwyn (died as Sapper Edward Jones)

Private with the Royal Welsh Fusiliers; transferred to the Royal Engineers, Sapper 147765, 255 Tunnelling Company; died of wounds at a Field Hospital 31st May 1918 age 34; buried Haringhe Military Cemetery. Also commemorated on Llangoed War Memorial

05 Pte William Owen, Ty'n Gongl

Private 25900, 17th Battalion Royal Welsh Fusiliers; killed in action on 31 July 1917 age 32; commemorated on the Menin Gate in Ypres; born in Llanerchymedd; married to Kate of Pengorhphwyspha, Llanddona

06 Pte James H Roberts, Ty'n Lon

Sapper James Henry Roberts 155490, 184 Tunnelling Company Royal Engineers who created an underground 'town' to hold 24,000 men; died of wounds 14 March 1918; buried Outtersteene Communal Cemetery Extension, Bailleul, France; son of the late John & Jane Roberts of Ty'n Lon, Llanddona; member of Peniel Chapel

07 Pte William Roberts, Rhos

Private 3517, 1st Battalion Welsh Guards; killed in action 4 September 1917, Langemarck at 3rd Battle of Ypres age 19; buried Canada Farm Cemetery Ieper (Ypres) Belgium. Also Commemorated on Llangoed War Memorial

08 Pte Hugh Williams, Corn Yd

Private 40902, 1st Battalion Royal Welsh Fusiliers, attached 258 Tunnelling Company Royal Engineers; died 2 February 1918 age 26; buried in Llanddona Churchyard; son of Hugh and Ann Williams of Corn Yd

09 Pte Hugh Williams, Tre'r Gôf

Private 54670, 16th Battalion Royal Welsh Fusiliers; killed in action 24 April 1917; buried Essex Farm Cemetery; born Llanddona;

10 Pte Thomas Williams, Llain Galed

Private 26338, 17th Battalion Royal Welsh Fusiliers; killed in action 9 July 1916 at Mametz Wood; commemorated on the Thiepval Memorial; born Beaumaris

“Cariad mwy na hwn nid oes can neb, sef bod i un roi ei einioes dros ei cyfeillion”

11 Seaman, William Williams, Pen y Bont

Merchant Service Fireman on SS Norfolk Coast; drowned as result of attack by enemy submarine on 18 June 1918 age 32; commemorated on Tower Hill Memorial; son of William and Jane Williams, born Beaumaris later described as ‘William Williams Gorslwyd’